

Pearl City 4th Graders Study Native Americans

Pearl City fourth graders have been studying Native Americans. They studied the different regions across the United States, and each student researched one tribe from those regions. The students created a triarama, an index card booklet, and a Google slideshow. On Tuesday, they presented their projects to the other classes in the school, as well as other teachers, staff, parents, and family members.

